

NOVEMBER, 2022 HUGH STOUPPE LIBRARY NEWSLETTER

Have a Happy Thanksgiving and a pleasant Veteran's Day.

Don't forget Election Day, either!

Thanks to all those library patrons who have contributed checkouts which enabled the library goal to be already met and exceeded.

Checkout Goal for 2022: 50

Checkouts to Date: 58

New Books Currently Available to Borrow:

1. Dinah Brown: Who Is Malala Yousafzai?: An Unauthorized Biography ages 10 and up
2. Gloria Kamen: Hidden Music: The Life of Fanny Mendelssohn ages 10-14
3. Adèle Geras: Golden Windows And Other Stories of Jerusalem Grades 3-7
4. Rhea Good, illustrated by Natalie Warner: Bottle of Grain: A Holodomor Story ages 10 and up
5. Don Freeman, author and illustrator: Mop Top ages 4-10 picture book

6. Susan Adler: Meet Samantha: An American Girl: Book One with illustrations by Nancy Niles ages 8 and up
7. Marguerite Rush Lerner, illustrated by Rov André: LEFTY: The Story of Left-Handedness Medical Books for Children ages 8-12
8. Michael Morpurgo: Why the Whales Came ages 9 and up
9. Trina Schart Hyman, adaptor and illustrator: The Sleeping Beauty Silver Anniversary Edition all ages
10. Laura Allen, illustrated by Valerie Coursen: American Girl Library: Clever Letters: Fun Ways to Wiggle Your Words ages 8 and up

Coming Soon:

1. Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch: Winter Kill ages 16 and up Holodomor fiction
2. Alan Milne, adapted from Kenneth Grahame's The Wind in the Willows: Toad of Toad Hall a musical play
3. William Henry Hudson: Little Boy Lost ages 10 and up autobiographical fantasy
4. Keith Robertson: Henry Reed's Think Tank ages 9 and up comedy
5. Simon Reade: Private Peaceful a play adaptation of the book by Michael Morpurgo teens and adults
6. Harold Keith: Rifles for Watie Newbery Medal Award teens and adults American Civil War setting

DVDs Now Available to Borrow:

1. Walt Disney's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs 2-dvd set includes audio commentary and many bonus features
2. Supa Modo subtitled live action feature drama from Kenya with a great juvenile lead performance ages 16 and up
3. Pan Tadeusz Poland 2000 Director: Andrzej Wajda subtitled live action feature dramedy from a master director of the cinema, based on the national epic poem of Poland adult viewing

4. The Wrong Man United States 1956 Director: Alfred Hitchcock starring Henry Fonda and Vera Miles a suspenseful docudrama includes the making-of documentary Guilt Trip: Hitchcock and The Wrong Man

Music: Bernard Herrmann Screenplay: Maxwell Anderson and Angus MacPhail teen and adult viewing

5. Paper Clips United States 2003 Co-Directors: Elliot Berlin and Joe Fab

live action feature Holocaust documentary MPAA Rating: G features middle-school teachers and students, as well as Holocaust survivors from Tennessee and Brooklyn

6. Two-dvd set A. Krylya (Wings) Soviet Union 1966 85 minutes

Director: Larissa Shepitko (Ukrainian native) subtitled live action feature female empowerment melodrama teen and adult viewing

B. Voskhozhdeniye (The Ascent) Soviet Union 1977 109 minutes

Director: Larissa Shepitko (Ukrainian native) a subtitled classic anti-war drama adult viewing from the Criterion Collection

Coming Soon:

1. Unfaithfully Yours United States 1948 105 minutes

Director: Preston Sturges starring Rex Harrison from the Criterion Collection live action feature screwball black comedy classic suitable for ages 16 and up

2. Twelve O'Clock High United States 1949 132 minutes Director: Henry King with Gregory Peck, Dean Jagger, and Paul Stewart live action feature drama suitable for older teens and adults

3. Funan Cambodia / France 2018 84 minutes Director: Denis Do subtitled feature docudrama animation Voices cast includes Bérénice Bejo (The Artist) adult viewing

4. Benjamin Britten's The Turn of the Screw Suspenseful British opera based on the Henry James novella. Music: Benjamin Britten suitable for ages 16 and up

5. Squanto: A Warrior's Tale Canada 1994 101 minutes

Director: Xavier Koller with Adam Beach, Mandy Patinkin, and Michael Gambon live action feature drama MPAA Rating: PG

6. The Missing Link United States 2019 93 minutes Director: Chris Butler feature animation fantasy comedy MPA Rating: PG

7. Hans Christian Andersen United States 1952 112 minutes color

Director: Charles Vidor with Danny Kaye and Roland Petit live action feature musical suitable for family viewing

8. The Glenn Miller Story United States 1954 116 minutes color

Director: Anthony Mann with James Stewart, June Allyson, Harry Morgan,

Louis Armstrong, and Gene Krupa live action feature musical biopic family viewing

There's plenty of new material to borrow and enjoy, including many Thanksgiving books and dvds. Hope to see you soon in the Heritage Church library.